LETTER FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Hello LHS students

Another year at LHS and this year instead of a flood, we had a fire! We try to keep things interesting around here. If you learned nothing else from your time at LHS I hope you learned to just go with the flow with crazy things happen and you suddenly find yourself eating lunch in your math class.

The yearbook is where we try to memorialize all the great things that we do as a community. You can look back at all the fun things you did at LHS, such as the plays, music, athletics, clubs and even your favorite classes (they can be fun as well!). I hope that years from now you look through this book and get a good laugh looking at the hairstyles and clothes that didn't age well (trust me, they won't!). And I hope you look back at your friends and the staff at LHS and everything that you were involved with and that those memories are good ones for you.

Enjoy

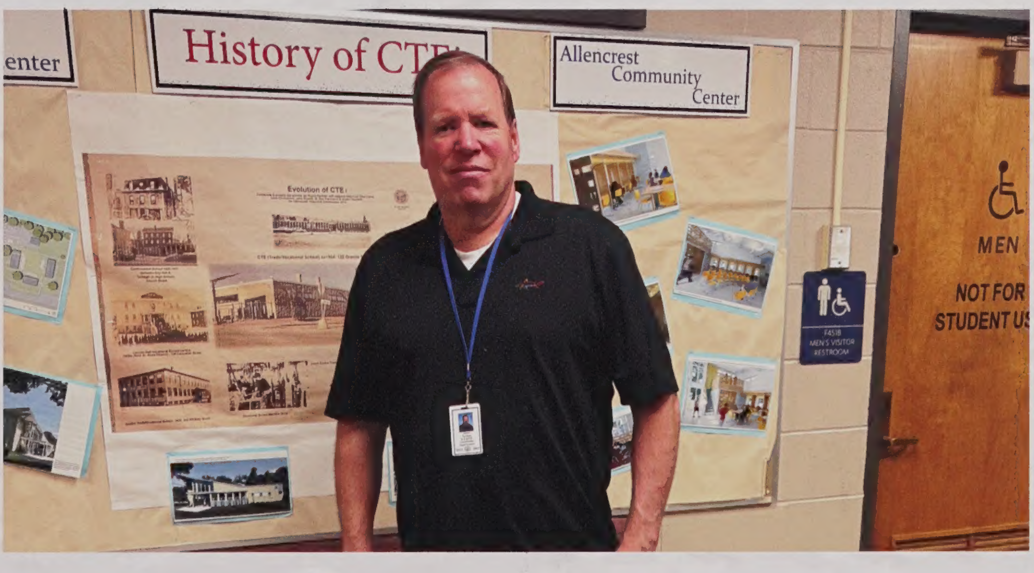
LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Class of 2025,

As you stand on the threshold of your future, I want to remind you that you are more than just graduates. You are innovators, creators, and skilled professionals ready to make an impact in your community. You have spent years mastering your craft, overcoming challenges, and proving that success is built through dedication, resilience, and passion. The world needs your talents, your hands-on expertise, and your determination to shape industries, build communities, and inspire the next generation. No matter where your path leads, whether directly into the workforce, furthering your education, or entrepreneurship, carry with you the confidence that you are well prepared. Trust in your skills, embrace lifelong learning, and always strive for excellence. Your future is yours to create.
Congratulations, Class of 2025! Go forth and build your own legacy.

With pride and admiration,
Mr. Daniel P. Bachant
Principal / Director Leominster CTEi



LETTER FROM THE ADVISORS

To the Class of 2025,

It is with mixed emotions that we say congratulations and farewell to you. Your class has had much to overcome during your academic career in Leominster. Before ever reaching the hallowed halls of Leominster High School you had your middle school years interrupted by the Covid pandemic. Your first months at LHS were spent under a mask mandate, which was challenging, to say the least.

In the face of these obstacles, your class has excelled in academics, athletics, the fine arts, as well as in the trades. You were also instrumental in reestablishing LHS traditions like the Homecoming Dance, as well as continuing with longstanding events such as the Thanksgiving Day Rally, Winter Carnival, and the Life Skills Talent Show. You became leaders of our extracurricular clubs and developed new ones for future students to enjoy. The Class of 2025 will be remembered for its perseverance and tenacity in all that you undertook.

Many of our athletic teams made it to the state finals. The Theater Company qualified for and competed in state-wide competitions. We sent students to California to play in a marching band at the Rose Bowl Parade. This is only a small taste of the many accomplishments of the Class of 2025.

It has been an honor and a privilege to have had the opportunity to see you grow from tentative freshmen to confident seniors, and from a fractured group of fourteen-year-olds to young adults who are eager to embark on the next, individual adventures of your lives.

Best wishes to all of you as your post-secondary endeavors take you in a myriad of directions. Never forget your roots—you will always be a Blue Devil.

ADVICE

Sometimes Love Is Right In front Of You! - Noah Fountain

Once your tardy once your tardy forever - Camila Kubin

Be authentic, make amends, forgive until the end - Heriberto De Jesus

Enjoy Every moment! - Emma McNamara

Don't take that first period class!! - Jailene

Don't die. Hydrate. Graduate. – Janessa Donovan

Stay to yourself!
– Zaneily Santiago

Know your self worth, just because you have known someone for your whole life does not mean you owe them anything. People change, move on and let them go. It is not worth losing yourself for someone who cannot appreciate who you are. – Senior '25.

Hey Seniors, It's our time to take everything we've learned, all the moments that got us here, and just go for it. Don't stress too much about the future. It's easy to get caught up in thinking we have to have everything figured out right now, but we don't. Just take it one step at a time. Don't be afraid to mess up. Take risks, try new things, and just enjoy the ride. This year isn't just about us individually—it's about celebrating all the good stuff we've gone through, the friendships we've made, and the memories we're going to create. Always remember that the people you walk into high school with, you won´t leave with the same people. So, here's to a great senior year. Let's make it count. Good luck!!

–Minnah

Dear Joachim, we know you are in the prescence of God, even though you are gone, we will all reunite with you when the time comes. You brought so much joy and happiness into our lives, without you here it feels uncomfortable. But only God knows why He called you to Him at such a young age. Even though you lived a short life, it was a life filled with, joy, happiness, laughter, and hard work. With your seven year battle with cancer you fought for us and held on for as long as you could. We thank you for being strong and courageous, we thank you for being you, we thank you for being in our lives, and we thank God for giving you to us
